

Anti-Discrimination and Harassment Policy for Electricity Transformation Canada Exhibition & Conference

All participants (including without limitation, RE+, Hannover Fairs Staff, the Canadian Renewable Energy Association staff, members, speakers, sponsors, volunteers, or any of their guests or other attendees) at the Electricity Transformation Canada Exhibition & Conference are required to comply with this policy. We expect cooperation from all participants to help ensure a safe and respectful environment for everyone.

We are dedicated to providing a discrimination- and harassment-free event experience at its events for everyone, regardless of ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, record of offences, marital status, family status, gender, gender identity and expression, age, sex, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race or ethnicity. We do not tolerate discrimination or harassment by event participants or our staff on any of these grounds, in any form.

Harassment includes, without limitation, (a) offensive verbal comments related to ancestry, place of origin, colour, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, record of offences, marital status, family status, gender, gender identity and expression, age, sex, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race, or ethnicity, (b) posting sexual images in public spaces, and (c) deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. Sexual language or imagery is not appropriate in connection with any ETC event, including in talks, workshops, parties, Twitter and other online media.

Reporting an Incident

If you are being discriminated against or harassed, or notice that someone else is being discriminated against or harassed, contrary to this policy, or you have any similar or related concerns, please contact an ETC Show Management staff member and report it, immediately. Staff can be identified by the official show management badge. All complaints will be treated seriously.

Disciplinary Action

Participants who are asked by staff to stop any discriminatory or harassing behaviour are expected to immediately comply.

All reports of discrimination and harassment will be directed immediately to the ETC leadership team who may consult with and engage other ETC staff, leaders, and legal counsel as appropriate. Event security and/or local law enforcement may be involved, as appropriate based on the specific circumstances.

Event participants violating the above rules may be, among other things, (1) sanctioned or expelled from the event without a refund, and (2) prohibited from attending any future ETC events, as determined by ETC Show Management in its sole discretion.

Electricity Transformation Canada

